OVER VIEW

The Lok Sabha is composed of representation of people chosen by direct election on the basis of universal adult suffrage

PURPOSE

General elections were held in India in seven phases from 11 April to 19 May 2019 to elect the members of the 17th Lok Sabha. Votes were counted and the result was declared on 23 May. The election resulted in a landslide victory for the BJP which won 303 seats and formed the government.

PROBLEM DEFINITION & DESIGN THINKING

Ideation & Brainstorming Map

Advantage

1. one of the primary advantages of cost-saving
2. conducting election on a nation scale including parliamentary and state assembly election, requires substantial financial resources

Disadvantage

1. India would require significant constitutional amendments
2. The current constitution provisions mandate a fixed tenure for the Lok Sabha and state legislative assemblies and any alteration to this arrangement would require complex legal changes that could face resistance and hurdles

Conclusion

The Lok Sabha constitutionally the house of the people is the lower house of India's bicameral parliament, with the upper house being the Rajya Sabha. The houses meet in the Lok Sabha chambers of the parliament house, New Delhi.
